

Mrs. X, say Mrs. Z, "Have you heard the latest news?"

Mrs. Z—"Why, what is it, dear?"

Mrs. X—"The Live Oak Brokerage & Commission Co. have on the road expecting it every day, 1,100 sacks of the Famous Snow Flake Flour, made in Nebraska!"

Mrs. Z—"I am so glad! Now, we can have good Biscuits and Bread again."

Mrs. X—"Me too, dear, their add will show the day it arrives and my Grocer will sure have to send me up a sack. A little high in price, but—"

A. LEE HUMPHREYS,
J. W. BRYSON, Clerk.

No Nonsense.

"The Elizabethan ruff is likely to return," said Ma Twaddles, looking up from the fashion paper she was reading.

"If he does," responded Pa Twaddles, with energy, "you set the dog on him. Do you hear?"

A Curious Tomb.

The most curious tomb in England is that of Lady Anne Grimston, daughter of the Earl of Thanet, who died nearly two centuries ago and was buried in Tewin churchyard. Upon her deathbed she disregarded the efforts of those who sought to administer spiritual comfort. An atheist she had lived, an atheist she would die. "It is as likely that I should rise again from the dead," she said, "as that a tree should grow out of the middle of my coffin." A tree has grown out of the middle of her coffin—an oak—and by its side a sycamore. The vault is square, of brick and granite. The two trees first filled the interior before they could find a way out. When they did burst through the masonry they so spread as completely to envelop the grave.

A Badly Burned Girl

or boy, man or woman, is quickly out of pain if Bucklen's Arnica Salve is applied promptly. G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., says: "I use it in my family for cuts, sores and all skin injuries, and find it perfect." Quickest Pile cure known. Best healing salve made. 25c at Barclay & Groover Drug Store.

THE NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION OF WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

Excels in Vocabulary. It is the most useful in size and contents, judiciously selected to exclude corruptions of good usage, and to avoid unintelligible technicalities.

Excels in Arrangement. Each word begins a paragraph in its correct alphabetical place and is readily caught by the eye.

Excels in Etymologies. These are complete and scientific, and embody the best results of philology. They are not cramped or crowded into obscure places.

Excels in Pronunciation which is indicated by respelling with the diacritically marked letters used in the schoolbooks, the sounds of which are taught in the public schools.

Excels in Definitions. They are clear, terse, yet complete, and are given in the order in which the word has acquired its shades of meaning. Many of the definitions are illustrated.

Excels in its Appendix which is a packed storehouse of useful knowledge.

Excels as a Working Dictionary. No other book embodies so much useful information, or is so indispensable in the home, study, school, or office.

The International has 2380 quarto pages with 5000 illustrations. 25,000 new words have recently been added and the Gazetteer of the World, and Biographical Dictionary have been completely revised under the supervision of W. T. Harris, Ph.D., LL.D., U. S. Commissioner of Education.

FREE—"A Test in Pronunciation," instructive and entertaining for the whole family. Also illustrated pamphlet.
